ABOUT ME

I am an undergraduate student pursuing Computer Science and Engineering at Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Coimbatore. I am passionate about exploring core areas of computer science such as data structures, algorithms, data science, artificial intelligence, and machine learning, while also developing practical skills through projects in AI/ML and computer vision. I enjoy problem-solving, continuous learning, and applying technology to create impactful solutions. With a strong interest in innovation, I look forward to opportunities where I can contribute, learn, and grow as a developer and engineer.
